

What's New with MissionsQuestSM

1998 MissionsQuest

Quest for each grade level:
Quest for Confidence—Grade 7
Quest for Courage—Grade 8

The design has caused confusion about how to best use the material.

Activities are at times lengthy and don't engage the learner. Many activities are research-oriented.

Material doesn't lend itself to working in groups.

Leader's guide gives instruction for working with individuals only.

MissionsQuest materials are updated only when reprints are needed.

Awards include a devotional book, Bible, ring, etc.

Quest materials are available only in print.

2006 MissionsQuest

Six quests with no labeling:
Quest for Confidence
Quest for Courage

Simple design. Easier to use and understand.

Activities are varied to appeal to all learning styles.

Material focuses on the individual learner, but will allow for group work.

Leaders guide gives instruction for working with groups and individuals.

Frequent updates are possible to make content more timely.

Awards are silver charms, one per quest.

Quest materials are available as downloadable products from www.wmystore.com and in print.
